"Learn of me, and listen to my words; walk in the meekness of my Spirit, and you shall have peace in me." D&C 19:23

Dear Garden Park Ward,

In a breakfast conversation this week with several ward members, we got to talking about Jesus's commandment to love everyone, including our enemies. "Ye have heard that it has been said, 'Thou shall love thy neighbor, and hate thine enemy.' But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them that despitefully use you; that ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven." What a radical concept that must have been when he taught it, and it remains pretty radical today. How can you love everyone when most people are so hard to love?

Martin Luther King taught, "Certainly these are great words, words lifted to cosmic proportions. And over the centuries, many persons have argued that this is an extremely difficult command. Many would go so far as to say that it just isn't possible to move out into the actual practice of this glorious command. They would go on to say that this is just additional proof that Jesus was an impractical idealist who never quite came down to earth. So the arguments abound. But far from being an impractical idealist, Jesus has become the practical realist. The words of this text glitter in our eyes with a new urgency. Far from being the pious injunction of a utopian dreamer, this command is an absolute necessity for the survival of our civilization. Yes, it is love that will save our world and our civilization, love even for enemies."

During the breakfast conversation referenced above, we also talked about a fascinating social experiment conducted by psychologist Arthur Aron, in which he showed that perfect strangers could rapidly develop deep and lasting love for each other by asking and answering 36 questions. The questions work because they encourage sincere sharing of our beliefs and vulnerabilities. The study authors write, "One key pattern associated with the development of a close relationship among peers is sustained, escalating, reciprocal, personal self-disclosure." When we actually get to know people at more than a superficial level and see their vulnerabilities, it's hard not to see them in a different light and have newfound affection for them.

Sometimes, members of our family can be the hardest to love. This week, I found myself in a long conversation about vaccines with two family members who have different views than my own. Over the past year, I've felt distant from them. But it was amazing to me how a single conversation based on trying to really understand each other was able to bridge that distance. I don't think any of us changed our minds much, but through 'reciprocal, personal self-disclosure,' I think we all came to appreciate and love each other more.

Returning to the sermon of MLK: "So this morning, as I look into your eyes... I say to you, 'I love you. I would rather die than hate you.' And I'm foolish enough to believe that through the power of this love somewhere, men of the most recalcitrant bent will be transformed. And then we will be in God's kingdom. We will be able to matriculate into the university of eternal life because we had the power to love our enemies, to bless those persons that cursed us, to even decide to be good to those persons who hated us, and we even prayed for those persons who despitefully used us."

Wishing you a month full of happiness, and perhaps even some newfound understanding and love for someone who is difficult to love.

Warmly,
Randy Peterson and the Garden Park Ward Bishopric

First Presidency Message on Covid-19

THE CHURCH OF
JESUS CHRIST
OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS

Official Church Announcements

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

We find ourselves fighting a war against the ravages of COVID-19 and its variants, an unrelenting pandemic. We want to do all we can to limit the spread of these viruses. We know that protection from the diseases they cause can only be achieved by immunizing a very high percentage of the population.

To limit exposure to these viruses, we urge the use of face masks in public meetings whenever social distancing is not possible. To provide personal protection from such severe infections, we urge individuals to be vaccinated. Available vaccines have proven to be both safe and effective.

We can win this war if everyone will follow the wise and thoughtful recommendations of medical experts and government leaders. Please know of our sincere love and great concern for all of God's children.

Relief Society

"Charity is having patience with someone who has let us down, it is resisting the impulse to become offended easily. It is accepting weaknesses and shortcomings. It is accepting people as they truly are. It is looking beyond physical appearances to attributes that will not dim through time. It is resisting the impulse to categorize others." -President Thomas S. Monson

The Guide to the Scriptures defines charity as "the highest, noblest, strongest kind of love". It is the pure love of Jesus Christ. I know that as we learn of Jesus Christ and strive to become like Him, we will begin to feel His pure love in our lives and be prompted to love and serve others as He would.

He is our greatest example.

I hope you all are well, we are grateful for you.

Please let us know if we can help you in any way,

Amy Furstenau and the GP Relief Society

Upcoming Activities

For our first post-Covid activity, we would like to meet for a Book Bonanza, on Thursday, September 16th at 6 pm. Please come prepared to...

- Review a great book you have recently read
- Use this as an excuse to read something you have wanted to read and share with us
- Grab a book from our little library
- Or just come and enjoy some book reviews

(Books need not be church books, just books that have inspired you. President Kimball was inspired by Les Miserables and spoke about it.)

Women's Singing Opportunity

Roger Thompson has invited the sisters to sing a musical number on October 17th in Sacrament Meeting. Please contact him (385.226.3317) or me (801.971.1504) if you're interested in participating.

Halloween Open House

We are hoping that we can host a Halloween open house at the carriage house again this year, but Covid has more power than we do (even when we are witches). We will keep you posted.

Floral Arranging & Decorations

Our November activity will be floral arranging and decorating ideas for Thanksgiving, tentatively on November 23rd.

Width of the blankets is the width off the bolts. Length should be 54"-58"

Tie simple knots close to the blanket, not on the ends of the fringe.

Roll the blankets tightly when finished and tie with the saved selvage pieces. Cut the selvage pieces about 18" long to use to tie up the blankets.

Bag in 33 gallon garbage sacks and mark how many blankets per bag. Please separate girls from boys and put gender neutral with boys. We always need more boy than girl blankets.
